ST. MARYS CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
ST MARYS, PENNSYLVANIA

DEDICATION

This is Central Catholic High School, long a top school, loved by thousands of students—fully accredited by the State Department of Education and the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

This is our school, where we experienced so many smiles, sorrows and dreams, where we spent so many impressive days, working, playing, praying and learning together—our school with its classes, athletics, dances, meetings, all helping to round out the year—our school, too, where we found inspiration, guidance, and a foundation for a better way of Catholic living.

Come September '62, the Elk County Christian High School, as it is to be named, will have been completed. The Class of Nineteen hundred and sixty-two respectfully dedicates this thirty third edition of the MEMO to "grand old" Central—it is our ALMA MATER.

Foreword

"Knock and it shall be opened to you"—Four years ago we stood before the doors of Central and were warmly welcomed into her halls. During those years we have passed through numerous doors: the door to Classes, where we spent many hours of hard work, broadening our minds for higher education; the door to Athletics, where the issue at hand was to build strong, healthy bodies; the door to Activities, where we formed strong friendships and rounded out a well-balanced personality, all designed to open up new doors to Christian culture; and the most important, the door to Religion, where we prepared to lead good Catholic lives for many years to come.

We would like to take you now with us as we go back through the various doorways, gateways of learning, as we seniors prepare to close the ever familiar doors of our Alma Mater, and seek to open the awe-inspiring door to our future—meeting life's challenges.

FATHER DONALD, O.S.B.

Father Donald is the well-liked and respected Administrator of Central, as well as the Secretary of the School Board.

During our four years here, he has probably influenced us more than any other person. Besides being Principal, Father must also be a diplomat and policeman. His sincere efforts and enthusiasm have endeared him to everyone.

We, the class, of '62 appreciate his untiring leadership and concern, and wish to extend our deepest gratitude to him.

CENTRAL HIGH FAMILY ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVES 1961-1962

The Central High Family Association, consisting of the parents of the high school students, is dedicated to creating a better understanding between the faculty, students, parents and the people of St. Marys. This purpose is furthered by bi-monthly meetings for which a definite and informative program is prepared by the Program Chairman. This year the Program included speakers on vital questions of interest to the members, such as, "Parental Guidance and Your Children's Future," by Dr. John Kosco, "Financing for Higher Education" by Mr. E. J. Crowe, "Job Opportunities for the Future" by Mr. D. A. Mascia, and "What School to Attend (Trade/College) and How Best to Select."

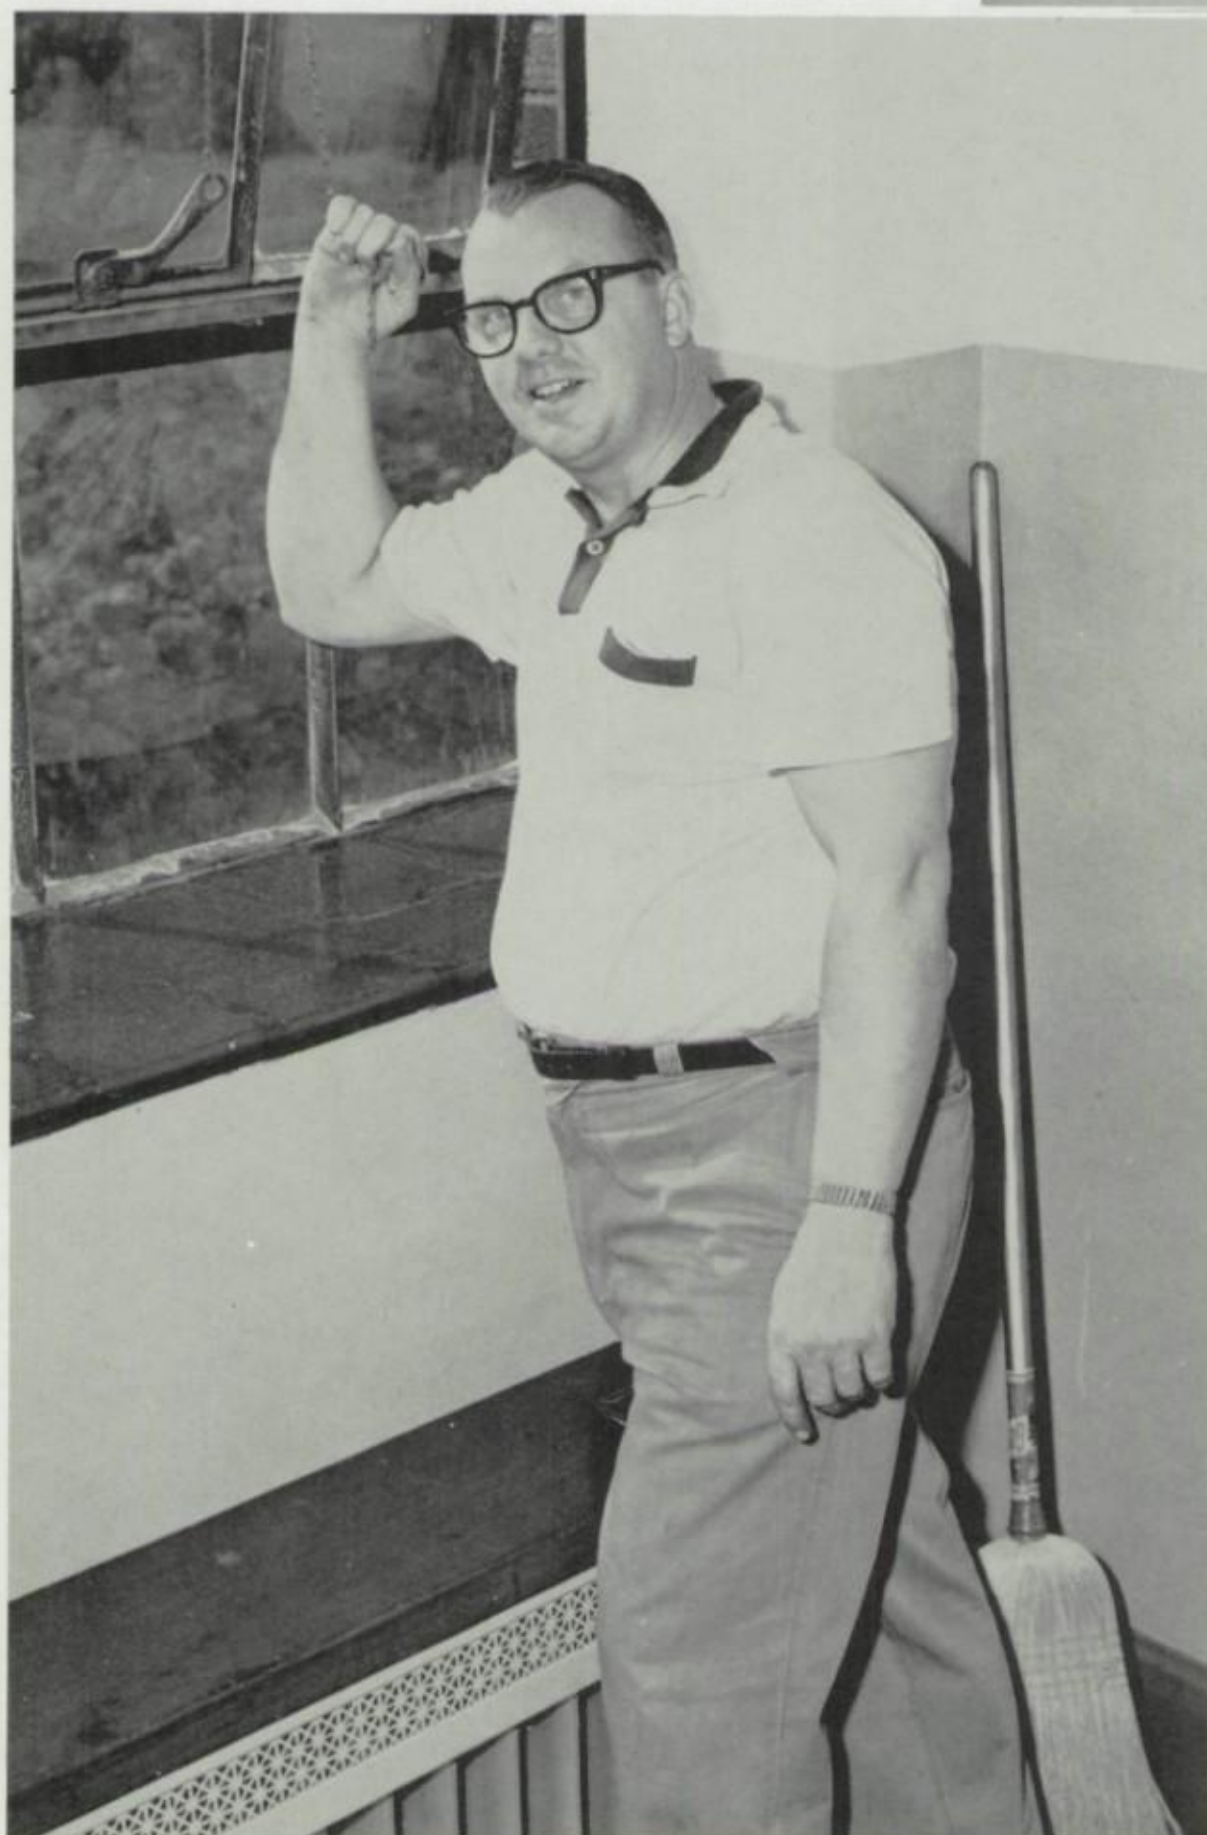

The representatives of the various grades and Parishes this year were the following: STANDING: Mr. Antonio Cornelio, Mr. Alfred Fleischman, Mr. Nicholas Giordano, Mr. Charles Wegemer, Father Donald, Mr. Charles Largey, Mr. Robert Simons, Mr. Robert Schaut, Mr. Jerome Straub. SEATED: Mr. Robert Lion, Mrs. James Ehrensberger, Mrs. Max Bauer, Mrs. Catherine Harclerode, Mrs. Charles Wegemer, Mrs. E. C. Dankmyer, Mrs. J. Harold Lambert, Mrs. John Engel.

Each year the Association renders some financial aid toward various school activities. The donation was currently used to help cover expenses incurred in the functioning of the Library, Forensic League, Dramatics, Science Fair and Physical Education.

to Basic Truths and Principles

Religion, an influential subject, is taken by all 580 students of Central every class day. Throughout the year, three Benedictine Fathers and seven Benedictine Sisters instruct us to model our lives after our Creator and Redeemer. This is partly achieved every Monday and First Friday when the student body attend a dialogue Mass and receive Holy Communion.

Many religious exercises and devotions are attended during the course of the year. In November, two special Retreat days were conducted by Redemptorist Father Rice at St. Marys Church.

Advent wreaths made in preparation for Christmas, remind us of Our Savior's coming. The Lenten season trains us in daily sacrifice with the necessity of penance for all. During the year, contests, Religion posters, and vocational talks comprise a part of our Guidance program. The solemn procession and crowning of our Blessed Mother as Queen of the May is the climax of our Religious functions.

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, to which all students belong, encourages prayer, sacrifice and study. Periodic collections are sent for various causes to the Missions at home and abroad.

History classes open the portals of the past

SOCIAL STUDIES

Instruction in Social Studies provides an interesting and informative facet to student education at Central. Of the 338 who take part in this program, some 181 Freshmen are educated in the fundamentals of Civics and Pennsylvania History. The members of the Junior Class, in number 103, through the study of American History, acquire a keener appreciation of their heritage. They also study the many problems incurred in the development of this country. The World Culture classes serve as an incentive for 117 Seniors to further explore the causes, conditions, and results of the conflicts which face the world today.

Library Assistants

Martha Schatz, Mary Brehm, Jerome Troha, Sister Genevieve, Louise Keller, Joan Salter, Jane Harclerode, John Loeffler, Carol Keller, Mary Paropacic, Ann Pfeufer.

The Library opens up immense treasures of incalculable worth. When any one of the 578 members of Central's student body or of its faculty passes through the Library door, he faces a vast horizon of books; a whole new world has been revealed by his single step.

Together with its advisors and assistants, the Library makes available to all, the amassed knowledge of human minds. It provides information in every field of human endeavor and is expressly tailored to fit the demands of Central's students. It is one of the busiest places in the school with students seeking reference material and reading matter, some obligatory, some voluntary. Volumes are being constantly added to keep abreast of the times.

of Learning Skills

English

The English course at Central, conducted by qualified personnel, complements classroom study and textbook preparation with Library work, designed to more fully exploit those facts previously learned. In this capacity the Library is particularly suited to function, due to the possession of a great and varied host of works by masters of the literary art, in times not only classical and modern but also in those outstanding of this very day.

Modern and foreign languages —

LANGUAGES

Today when any part of the earth is but a few hours away, the knowledge of more than one language can be very useful. Two hundred and twelve Centralites are now supplementing their English with Latin, Spanish, German, and French.

In the Latin classes 153 pupils return each day to the land of the Caesars. From the 20 Spanish students one might expect at any time a cheery "Buenos dias." In German we hear "Wie befinden Sie sich, heute?", and the 3 studying French greet their instructor with "Bon jour, ma Soeur."

They endeavor not only to understand and read the language, but also to speak it fluently. Through records and other aids they are accomplishing their task.

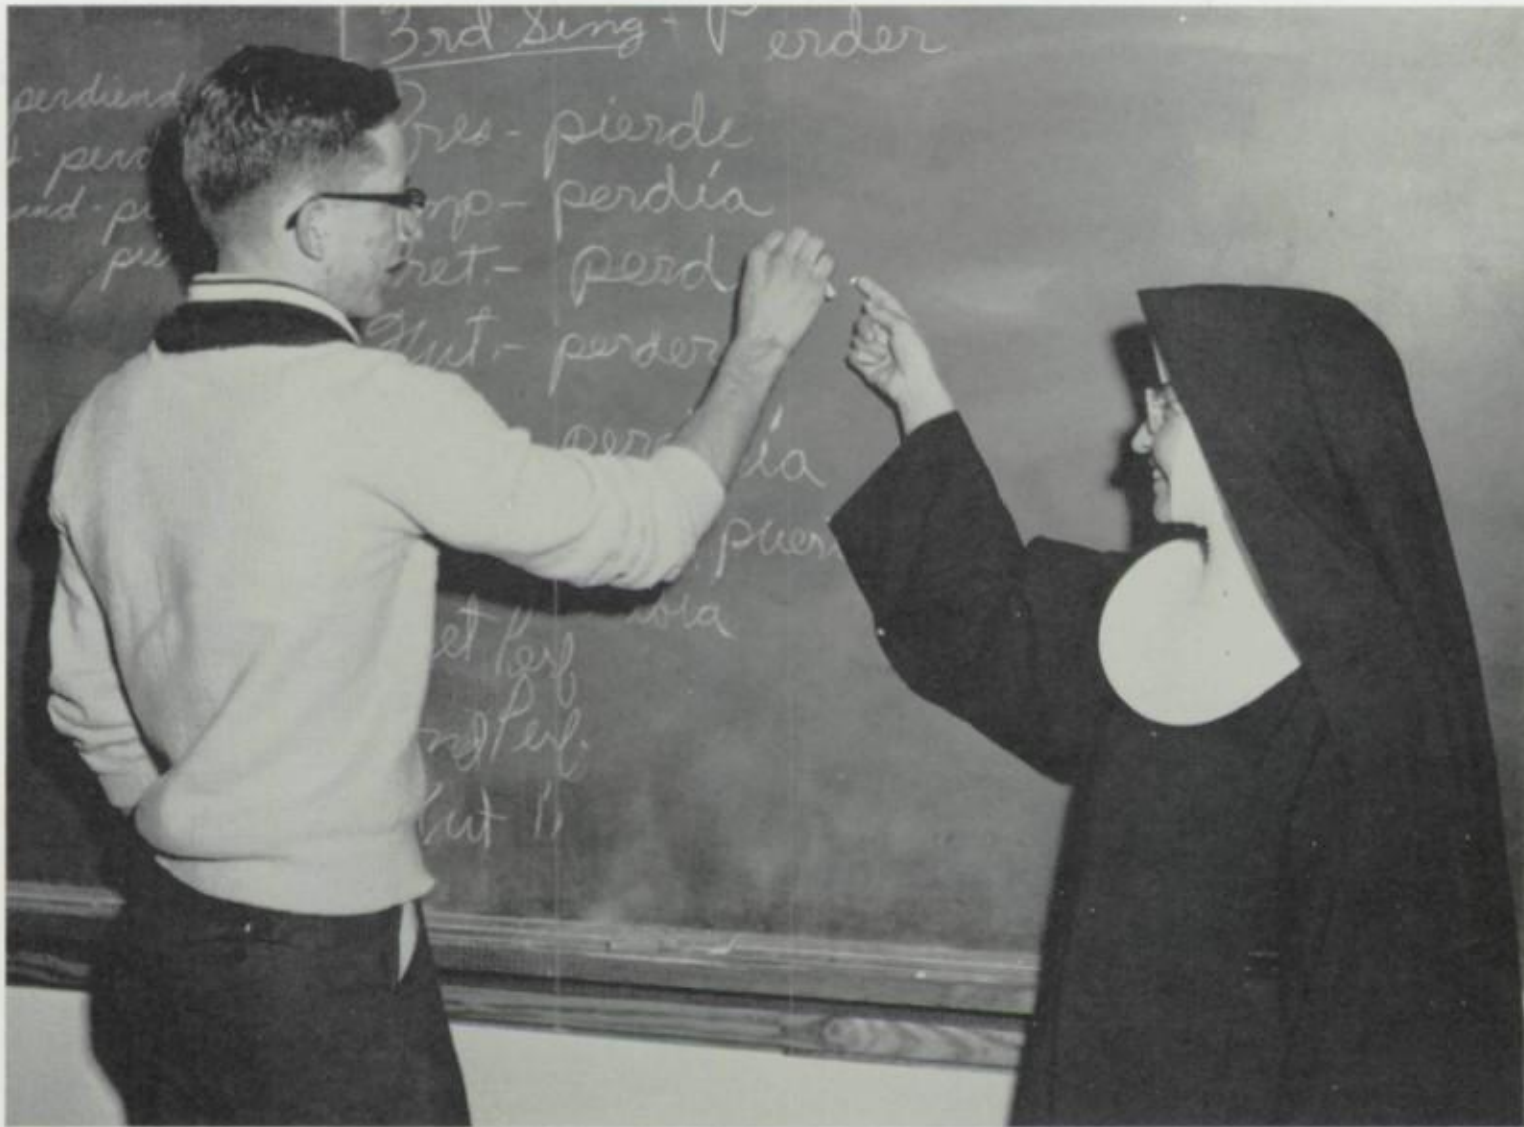

It is interesting to learn about the peoples of other countries, and to converse as they do is equally exciting.

Good Food + Adequate Exercise =

HEALTH

The study of health as a specific course is required in the sophomore year for all one hundred and sixty-five of the tenth graders. First-aid, a balanced diet, correct grooming, and personality form a definite part of the course. An up-to-date record is kept of all students' height, weight, hearing and sight conditions through repeated checking by the school nurse. Complete physical fitness is periodically checked by the school doctor and corrective measures are followed through.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

This year, for the first time, physical education was offered for the Freshman students, hence, all five hundred and eighty students of Central have the opportunity to improve their physical prowess. A wide variety of drills, exercises and stunts are practiced and mastered in the effort to strengthen and develop seldom-used muscles in order to produce healthy, vigorous bodies to house active, alert minds.

A demonstration of specific techniques and abilities that were mastered by members of the physical education classes was presented for their parents and interested faculty members.

Every facility of the school is utilized to produce "sound minds in sound bodies," so that the students of this school will be prepared to take their place in an ever-changing and complex society, with credit to their Catholic heritage.

SCIENCE

Once again the inquisitive and enthusiastic minds of the students of Central have delved into its scientific courses.

The five various branches of scientific study taught here have opened the minds of 397 students to greater knowledge.

Biology class finds 142 Central-ites intently exploring the study of life. Modern Biology combines the study of type organisms emphasizing the unity of life, the systematic study of plants and animals showing the relationship of all living things, and the study of principles being inductively approached.

The more mathematical-minded student might challenge his intelligence with the study of Physics. Special attention is given by this subject to the operations and applications of physical laws in daily life. This year the class consists of 26 students.

Twenty-one students have enrolled in the Physical Science course. This is easier, for it does not deal with higher math., but still is just as interesting as Chemistry or Physics.

The study of science makes one marvel still more at the wonders of God's universe.

What We Learn Today

Homemaking is a required subject in the curriculum for all Freshman girls. The objective of these classes is to set up goals which will help teen-agers to become better family members, and thus to contribute to the happiness and right living in their homes now and in the near future.

By studying such topics as "Helping younger brothers and sisters," "Spending and saving with a purpose," "Making your own clothes," "Foods you like and need," the girls imbibe a desire for habits that promote love and thoughtfulness of others, begin to realize the importance of assuming responsibilities, and learn skills they can carry over into their home life.

COMMERCIAL CLASSES

Business Education classes prepare Commercial students for job competency, for specific jobs in the business world, namely bookkeepers, clerks, stenographers and for other office jobs that are an integral part of modern management.

The office practice courses help the 27 in that class to meet the demands of our time, and the needs of the future, with the knowledge and skills that are needed for successful employment in the jobs that have evolved with the incorporation of automatic data processing techniques in office operations.

Our 88 stenographers get a practical working knowledge of transcription principles in action. One hundred and eighty-eight students get all-around learning in their progress toward developing complete typewriting power — "thinking" typists, rather than "copying" typists. Twenty-five bookkeepers learn the theory of debiting and crediting accounts, etc. Forty-seven students relate the fundamentals of applied business arithmetic to the everyday problems of life.

"Industrial Arts" is planned to introduce students to general principles and fundamentals of operation in the field. There is no attempt to prepare students for a particular job. The teacher endeavors to give students an idea of the nature of each type of work to explore the possibilities for use of specific machines and materials, and to develop basic skills in each area. The students acquire a respect for tools and utensils, a knowledge of good work habits, experience

Mathematics — the Solution

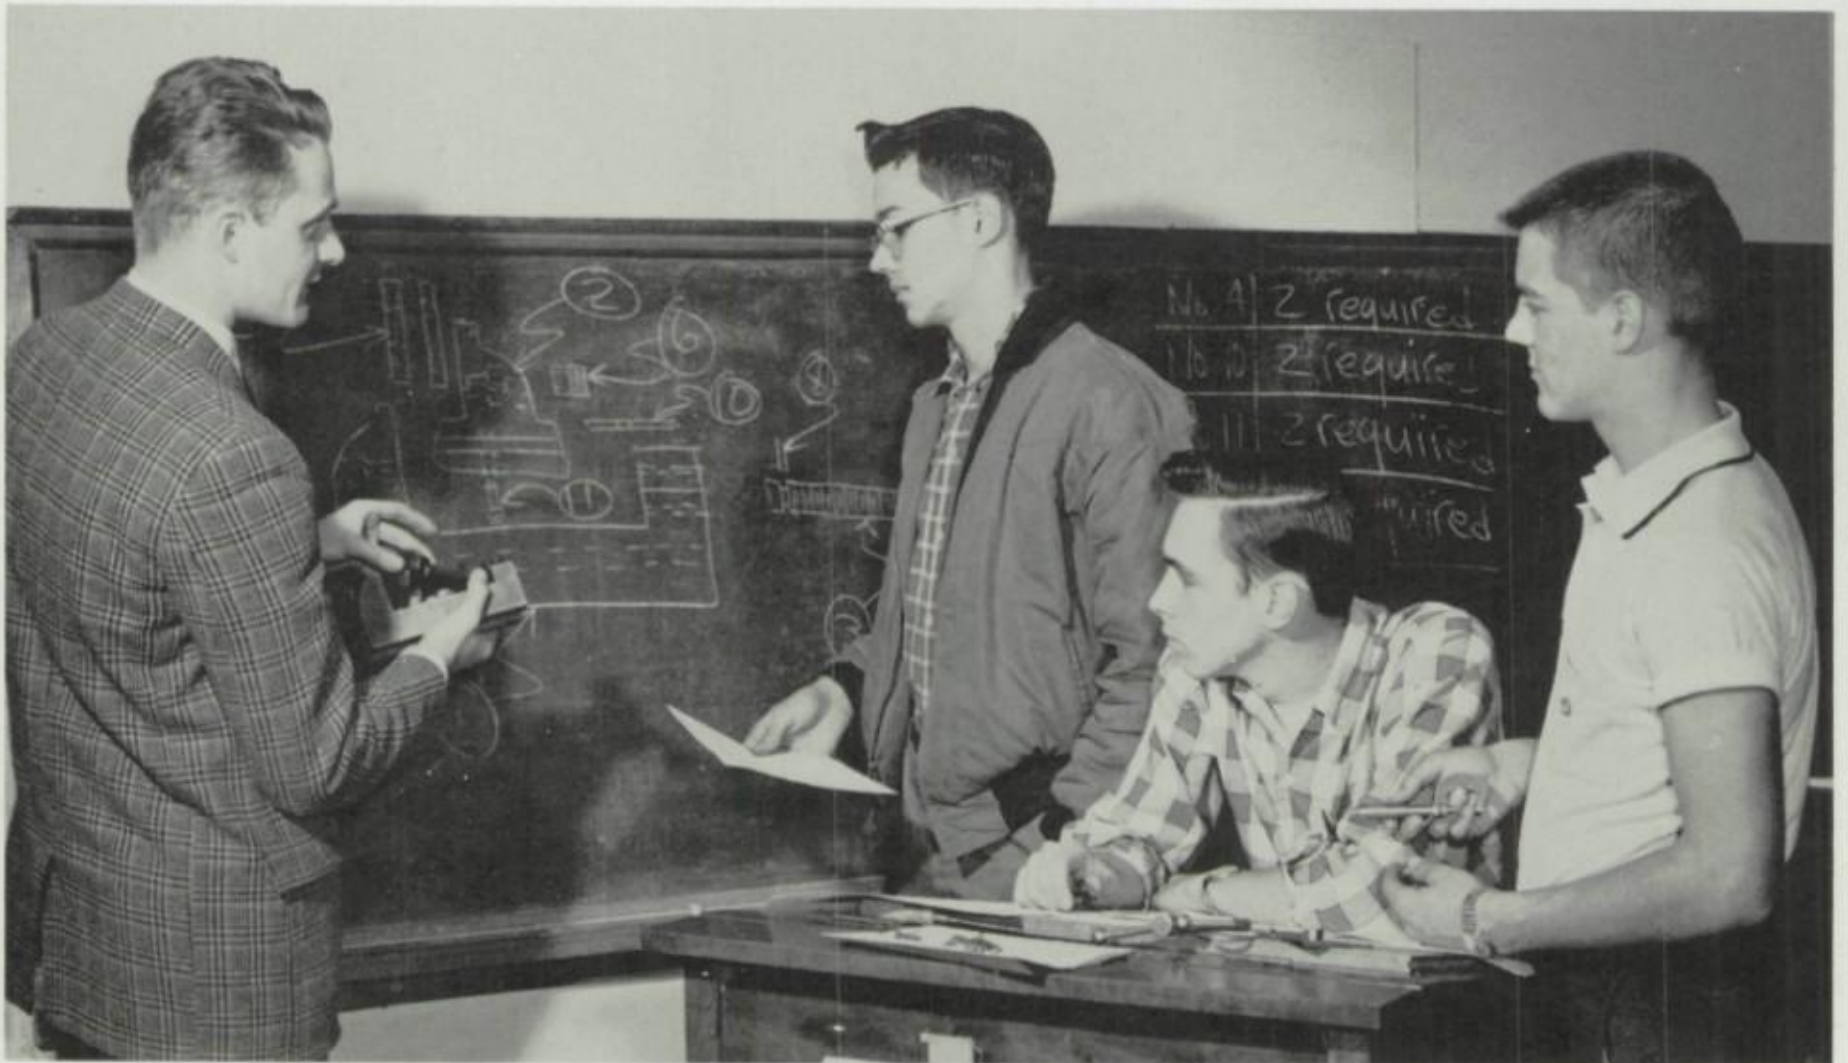

This year 532 of Central's students are endeavoring to follow in the footsteps of Einstein.

Starting at the bottom of the ladder toward mathematical intelligence, we find the more simple everyday elementary problems for the 43 General Math students and 45 Mechanical Drawing I students. To tax the brains of the educated and authorized scientists, the 190 Algebra I students and 95 Algebra II students continually look for that mysterious number "x." Those in Plane Geometry number 67 this year, and take great pride in their ability to prove that $C^2 = A^2 + B^2$. Finally as we approach the top of the ladder in our high school years, the 34, 26, and 8 more mathematics students explore into the depths of Trigonometry, Trade Math, and Advanced Math respectively.

These students can be seen studying earnestly, trying to obtain their goal in order to make a suitable showing of themselves in the world, once they have completed their years at Central.

The various mathematical solutions solved in youth, tend to enlighten the minds to appreciate the intricate wonders of God's creations . . . Working with various scientific theorems naturally tends to arouse the curiosity about mathematical principles. Being exposed to the diverseness of these subjects, students gain some sort of mathematical satisfaction.

The Door to the Past

THE MEMO

The Memo brings to mind the many happy times we had at Central — in it we relive the memorable days of our high school career. The staff members below sacrificed countless hours to make this 33rd edition possible — recounting as it does, the many youthful joys with faculty and classmates here at CHS.

Work began with the soliciting of Patrons. Soon after, the Seniors were meeting every Saturday and during free time to prepare the copy sheets. Tedious work went into this preparation. Relief was evident on every face when we met the final deadline, but the Memo of '62 compensates for all our endeavors. 1961 MEMO rated first class in the Official scoring by the Columbia Press Association —we are aiming for as good, if not a better rating this year.

Opens to the Future

Amid the hustle and bustle of school life, we find the Ides staff busily preparing for the forthcoming issues of the school paper. With each edition, they strove for advanced recognition in the world of printers' ink and copyright. It was an exciting experience — a real education in itself. It meant hard work for the members throughout the year, but there was fun and satisfaction in meeting deadlines and visualizing their individual journalistic accomplishments in print.

The staff eagerly anticipated their yearly jaunt to St. Bonaventure's University, N.Y., on the forthcoming Press Day. With the news came excited ejaculations of enthusiasm, coupled with the creative urge, to improve the future editions of the Ides. In previous years, the staff profited immensely by the various clinics conducted on these occasions.

U 'N I 'N SCIENCE CLUB

Eight new members have swelled the ranks of the U 'N I 'N Science Club since September and have given added impetus and vitality to it.

On August 29, the Club Members toured the Glass Plant at Brockway, Pa., the Pennsylvania Burial Case Factory and the Drayer Greenhouses at Reynoldsville, Pa. September 21 saw them observing the construction of electric light bulbs at the local Sylvania Plant. A fund-raising dance was sponsored on Halloween night at the Youth Center and netted a nice profit. On Nov. 1, the Club Members took off by bus for Olean, N.Y., to visit the Reiss Game Preserve and Animal Park. This proved to be a very fascinating and instructive tour. A festive note was added by a Christmas Party held in the school basement on Dec. 22.

Several members of the club visited the seventh and eighth grades in the three local schools to initiate interest in constructing projects for the spring School Science Fair which, this year, was held on March 17. They also kept the grade school students conscious of the annual Fair by making and displaying posters in the halls.

The "point system" for attendance resulted in the trip to Olean being paid in full by the Club for John Zelt with the highest number of points, and half the price paid for the next two highest point winners, James Snelick and William Grieggs. Points can be gained by attendance at the regular bi-weekly meetings, taking part in the planned tours, and by participating in the sectional meetings.

To enable the Club Members to obtain an insight into various careers and opportunities, a number of films were rented and shown at stated intervals. Some of the fields covered were: Certified Public Accountant, American Medical Association, Social Work, Airline Hostess, Funeral Director, Aid to the Blind, Epilepsy and Science, Dietetics, Handicapped Children, Buying & Selling a House, and the Salesman. These films presented first-hand information from accredited sources and broadened the outlook for the viewers.

Speakers were invited to address the Club in fields of their interest. Sister Colette, the Lab. Technician from the local hospital, explained the training needed for medical technicians; Mr. Thomas Gerg threw enlightenment on the various kinds of engineering and the type of work done by each; Dr. McGeehan clarified many points about the medical profession and especially surgery. Thus the Club is an enriching experience for its members.

The Annual Science Fair

The "Church Street Five" and Santa Claus supplied the entertainment at the Science Club Christmas Party. James Snelick, accordion, Gale Largey at the piano, Peter Largey, gamut bells; Robert Jambro, saxophone; Thomas Hauber as Santa, Carl Brennan, trumpet; and John Zelt at the drums.

Part of the group enjoying the dance at the Christmas Party were William Grieggs and Louise Keller, John Zelt and Martha Schatz, Rosemary Rettger and Gary Grunthner.

MUSIC

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Wittman, our glee club continually strives to perfect its work. This year, many new numbers, both sacred and secular, were added to its repertoire. The concert in the spring is its culmination. Mrs. Wittman also directs the singing for graduation.

The school choir is a new organization this year, directed by Sister Mary Edward. The members practice Tuesdays after school, and sing for the regular First Friday student Mass, and for other occasions.

The three Parish choirs enjoy singing the praises of the Lord at Holy Mass, Benediction, Holy Hour, and at other Church services. They give freely of their time for practice at least once a week.

DRAMATICS

Troupe No. 658 of the National Thespian Society rallied in September for a very enthusiastic and dramatic year. Being a charter member, the Troupe has two hundred and sixty full-fledged Thespians, life members, and it is affiliated with the other 2220 schools.

The purpose of the first meeting was to appoint officers and to plan a perspective of events for the current year. With James Klein as President, Alfred Gausman—Vice-President, Christine Sorg—Secretary, Susan Herzing—Treasurer, Robert Hoffman—Reporter, and John Goodreau—Assistant Director, the Troupe was prepared for a successful year of Acting.

The initial performance, THE RED SHOES, was presented on October 27 and 29 in recognition of Father Timothy's Golden Jubilee in the Priesthood. A well-acted and highly-praised three-act Comedy, REST ASSURED, was staged for the public on November 26 and 27. HOW MANY MILES TO BETHLEHEM was appropriately performed in preparation for Christmas. For presentation early in the New Year, the Senior girls chose A CRAZY VIOLET, and the Junior boys a minstrel play.

In April, several members of the Troupe attended the one-day Regional Conference at Pennsylvania State University. The Ninth National Dramatic Conference at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, in June, saw a number of the Troupe members in attendance.

Recognition as Best Thespians this year was extended to James Klein and Robert Hoffman, and the privilege of Honor Thespians to Alfred Gausman, Christine Sorg, Susan Herzing, Victoria Coppolo, Jacqueline Minnick and John Goodreau.

The Cast of HOW MANY MILES TO BETHLEHEM

Jester—Bruce Schaefer, Chorus—Charlotte Reed, Anne Uhernick, Kathryn Werner, Kathleen Ehrensberger, Jeanne Weber, Catherine Heindl. "Younger Than Springtime"

Throughout the spring of 1961 the Junior Class was a bee-hive of activity, as we envisioned our one goal. To that end, many hours were spent in devoted labor and preparation for the aesthetic evening when our Junior Prom came into breathless existence.

On that evening of May 5, we gazed upon the Elks Ballroom which had been transformed into a location of memorable beauty. Junior artisans had appropriately decorated it to the theme of "Younger Than Springtime." Striking clusters of colorful flowers adorned the walls, while sloping streamers of green and white crepe-paper accented the ceiling. A complementary effect was rendered by our suspended centerpiece, which took the final form of a beautiful flowered bell.

Our queen, Sally Diehl, and John Pistner, the King.

On that enchanting evening, renditions of musical art were given by the Stereo's, our selected orchestra.

A bouquet of red roses was presented to Sally Diehl, who together with her escort, John Pistner, reigned as King and Queen of the evening.

At the hour of twelve and thirty, our Prom was concluded with the melodious strains of "Younger than Springtime."

A Post Prom, sponsored by the Family Association, was then held at the CMF ballroom. Delicious refreshments were served by the Juniors' mothers. Musical entertainment was initiated this year by the Central Sing-Alongs. Their appearance was a fitting Finale to a never-to-be-forgotten evening.

A cheerful group of Promsters.

Queen of the Angels

Mary, being crowned Queen of the May, by Rita Hnath.

The annual May Crowning was held by Central High students on May 12 at Sacred Heart Church.

While the choir sang Marian hymns, the procession wended its way down the church. Cross bearer and acolytes preceded crown bearer, Freshman Linda Yetzer. Attendants Sally Kneidel and Susan Dauer, Sophomores; Mary Crowe and Christine Valentine, Juniors; Judith Feldbauer, Irene Kneidel, Maureen Schatz and Elizabeth Schloder, Seniors, followed.

Preceding the statue of our Lady, carried by Seniors James Engel, Michael Kneidel, Alan Hannibal and Edward Lynch, was May Queen Rita Hnath. Principal Father Donald, accompanied by two altar boys completed the procession.

The crown bearer wore a simple white dress with a pink cummerbund with a full wreath head piece of white pom-poms. The attendants wore gowns of pastel colors, half-wreath head pieces, and carried white and pink carnations. The May Queen was attired in a white tiered lace bridal gown with a white net veil and a cascade arrangement of flowers of white carnations. Father Donald blessed the crown, and Rita, after placing her bouquet at the foot of the statue, crowned the Blessed Virgin, Queen of the May. Father Conan, assistant at Sacred Heart delivered a concise talk dealing with "Catholic Heritage." "You have a Catholic education of inestimable value," said Father. "Live it! Don't just crown Mary, Queen today," he continued, "but make her Queen every day."

The ceremony was concluded with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Forensic Students — Tomorrow's Leaders

FORENSIC

This year there are 58 members in the National Catholic Forensic League of Central, and of this number 10 are seniors; 9, juniors; 23, sophomores; 16, freshmen.

The students in Original and Prepared Oratory, Extemp., Drama, Humor, Debate and Student Congress, have been working hard on their speeches, delivery, poise, gestures, but only 14 of this number have been able to earn certificates so far. Half of the freshmen and 3 new sophomores earned theirs. This is the first time that we are ordering 11 pink seals with the 14 membership certificates this year. As of this writing, 41 of the members are certificate members, that is, have earned through active participation in competition their 25 required points for membership. Many of the remaining 17 will be able to join the ranks before the school season is over.

The two seniors who have been active members during their sojourn at Central are Bernadette Wegemer and Frank Grunthaner with 292 and 281 points respectively. Through Forensic participation, these two are well prepared to conduct meetings according to Parliamentary procedure, express their opinions on world topics, and enter discussion with a great amount of persuasion for or against. We feel these are able to meet the problems encountered in Community living.

Although track and field is a newly-opened door in the athletic department at Central High, it has moved progressively forward in bringing a new era of excitement and satisfaction to many sports-minded boys. Since this highly competitive sport exhibits the individual man's athletic abilities, a team victory at a track and field meet is really two-fold: the individual's success and the team's. A team victory is determined by the total number of points gathered during a meet. Points are gained by the individuals themselves according to their placing with opponents. Central's triumph at the County Meet was by far the most dramatic team victory.

Competing with the Ridgway Elkers, the Johnsonburg Ramblers, and their cross-town rivals, the Public High Dutchmen, the Crusaders carried home the blue ribbons.

The Blue and Gold of 1961-62 amassed an amazing 19-4 record. While breaking the previous CHS offensive record 1492 points, they limited their opponents to 1057 points. The individual scoring record was thrice surpassed as Charles Kronenwetter first broke it with 34 points against DuBois Central; Ken Mills, 35 against St. Leo's and Robert Simons, 38 against Johnsonburg.

Among the season's outstanding wins were the 65-39 Carbon Bowl Championship victory over St. Marys Public, the thrilling 57-55 victory over St. Joseph's of Renovo, and the upsetting of Public in the first City Series games 46-45.

The most crucial game was played at Gannon College Auditorium as the Crusaders faced Cathedral Prep for the Diocesan Class A title.

Leading the Crusaders in scoring were Chuck Kronenwetter, with 347 points, Ken Mills with 286 points, and Dave Anderson with 223 points. Ken Mills' 333 rebounds led all others in this department.

New opponents this year were Oil City, whom we did not play last year, and Titusville, whom we played last in 1953-54.

The Junior Varsity with Mr. Robert Lupton at the helm compiled a 15-6 record; leading the JV's scorers was John McGeehan with 195 points.

The Junior High directed by Varsity Coach, Augustine Spizzirri, were victorious 4 times while losing 10.

Every Monday sports-minded girls braved the elements to participate in the intramural sport, coached by Miss Alicia Reuscher. Those who were present for the first game, December 8, and who continued to come for the remaining weeks, deserve special credit.

Miss Reuscher discusses the rules with Doris Wendel and Lois Weichman.

Senior homeroom 202 heralded "congratulations" as they took first place in the finals, held February 18. Seniors 203 followed closely, with Gym 100 taking third place. Fourth, fifth and sixth places went to Juniors 105, Seniors 201, and Juniors 205 respectively.

Sophomores and Freshmen have not completed their games as this goes to press. High scorers for Seniors and Juniors were:

Farewell to dear old Central!

Doors—what a great part they play in our lives! We are forever approaching or passing through doors. Every journey begins by going through a door and it ends by passing through another when we have reached our destination. Doors hide many mysteries. Much, if not all, of life's story is told between the opening and closing of doors.

At the venerable portals of Central we say "Farewell" to those we leave behind as we close these doors for the last time.

Hail! all hail! our ALMA MATER,
Hail! all hail! to thee.
Hail! the blue and gold we honor,
True to thee we'll be.
As our halls stand decked in glory
We will try our best.
Hail! all hail! our ALMA MATER,
Hail! dear C.H.S.

Welcome to Elk County Christian High School!

Acknowledgement

As Memo goes to press for another year we would like to express our appreciation for what our school has done for us through its administration and instructors. The Staff acknowledges with thanks the people who made this annual possible—our faithful advisors, our ever patient photographer, our cooperative faculty and students, our gracious patrons and all our friends who have been directly or indirectly responsible for this edition of the Memo.
